PORT AUGUSTA SUPER SERIES

Results have been distributed

IAN'S WESTERN HOTEL 180+ comp

Prize monies to be sorted out

Thanks to Brenda for compiling results during the season and thanks to Jason Johansen for the set-up of the excel file to calculate results.

Boat division changes for next season.

Under 23 mens and womens will be introduced in place of Under 21

Under 19 to remain as is.

David Shaw to provide info on Masters Womens situation for consideration.

Stainless Steel Strips. There have been problems associated with the removal of the keel strips from surfboats. It has created another safety issue because crews still do not keep a regular check on the keel of their boats. There is a possibility that keel strips could be re-introduced. Tony Park will provide further info as it comes to hand.

Tom Pearce available to install stainless steel strips if ratified for use on boats

Australian Titles: - Congratulations to the South Port Open crew on making the Semi finals

GENERAL BUSINESS

Warwick Archer raised Masters Dinner at the Aust Titles. Gave a run down on the evening – well received.

Situation re Mike Tamblyn (Pres of Masters Rowers Aust) opinions re ASRL's disdain re Master's results/recognition in general. Seeking support of the ASRL-SA to support recognition of Masters at the ASRL AGM in June. There were 160 crews competing in Masters 2006.

An addition to the agenda for ASRL-AGM 2006 that Masters needs to be recognised and to have a mention on the website etc.

MOVED W. Archer/B. Misell CARRIED

Max Simionato raised the issue of outstanding ASRL-SA tee shirts. J. Devitt to follow up.

Robert Mooney. Some form of Junior comp needs to be conducted prior to Christmas/perhaps West Lakes river rowing comp.

Allen Hodson brought up the need for financial reporting at the ASRL AGM. Also indicated SA crews nominated at the Aussies turn up not like previous seasons. Discussed pre qualification of Masters boat crews and event prior.

David Shaw. 2nd half of the Aussie titles coverage this coming Easter Saturday
